SKILLS

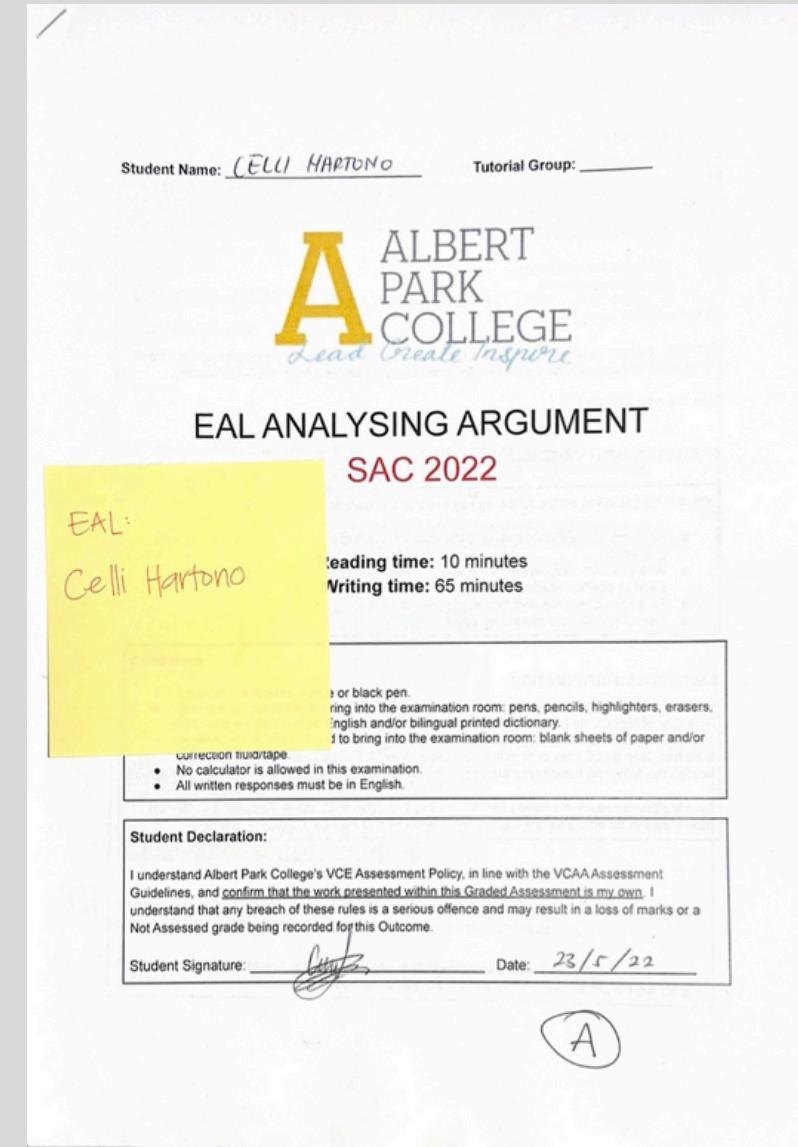

— Writing...

Cellilov has a deep and avid possession of writing which is considered her core interest. It all started with an unexpected announcement of being chosen as a reciter on Mother's Day for her piece of writing and poem. From then on, she began expanding her curiosity by further writing poems.

Receiving a certificate

Consequently, as she continued her writing journey from scratch, it became the cornerstone of her dexterity while seeking skills to hone from writing little and brief poems to finally being able to write constructive and rigorous essays. Due to the fact, she received the 'Endeavour Award' for excellence in English as an Additional Language after graduating from Albert Park College. This award was evaluated based on the pupil's great strength and effort throughout the year.

As of now, Cellilov has been an active writer on Medium, in which will be used as an individual platform to communicate little to big thoughts as well as opinions pertaining to issues Cellilov is concerned about and in need of amplification: Politics, History, Philosophy, Religion, Ideology, etc. Aside from constructing essays, she also likes sharing her personal views to further boost her writing skills. Everything in between.

Moreover, she is one of the writers of 'Journal Kita' where writers from all over Indonesia publicise their writing consisting of a variety of topics. The page attached herein is the writing titles.

SKILLS

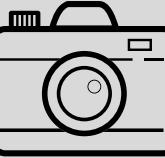

— Communication, Diplomacy, Negotiation, Research

Followed by Cellilov's skills in and passion for writing, she also developed a liking for public speaking. This area of interest is supported by her Model United Nations attendance and certification: Verbal Commendation and Honourable Mention, education collaboration, storytelling and speech performance, and so on. As a result, these elevate her communication, diplomacy, negotiation, and research skills.

— Photography

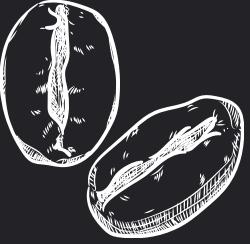

Cellilov has polished skills in Photography. Henceforth, she embarked on her little medium to publish her works on Instagram @snapsinseconds.

She opened the account in 2020 and has uploaded around 90+ photography works over more than 3 years.

SKILLS + License or Certification
